

STUDENT FEEDBACK FORM (Faculty Feedback)

FEEDBACK RATING: 0 (Poor), 1(Below Avg.), 2 (Avg.), 3(Above Avg.), 4(GOOD), 5(EXCELLENT)

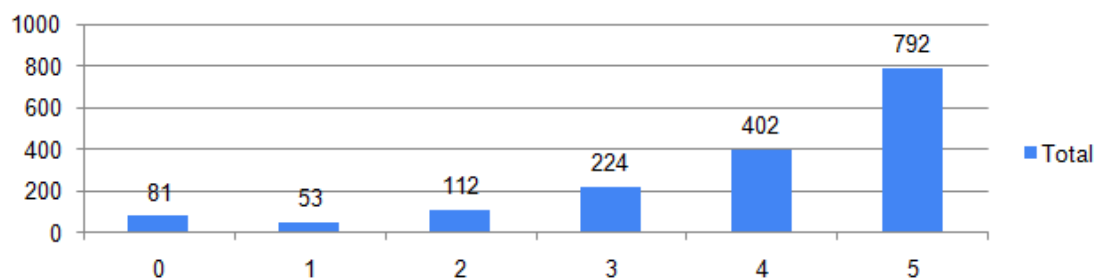

Third Year ETC Faculty Feedback Analysis

3. Interest and enthusiasm (Class/Practical presented in an interesting way; teaching was lively or energetic; students' further interest was stimulated)

4. Interaction with students (Reacted positively to student comments or questions or in discussions; willing to assist student when they had difficulty; opportunities for input in the class/practical)

5. Feedback to students (Provide constructive input on student work; ways to improve was provided; input received in time to be useful)

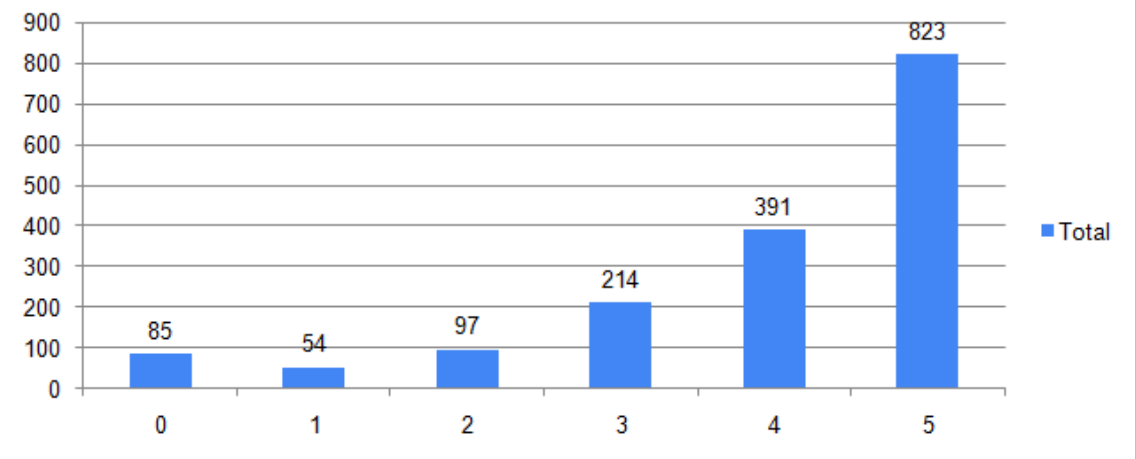

6. Availability for consultation (Office hours posted; times suitable to students; other forms of consultation available (i.e. email, phone))

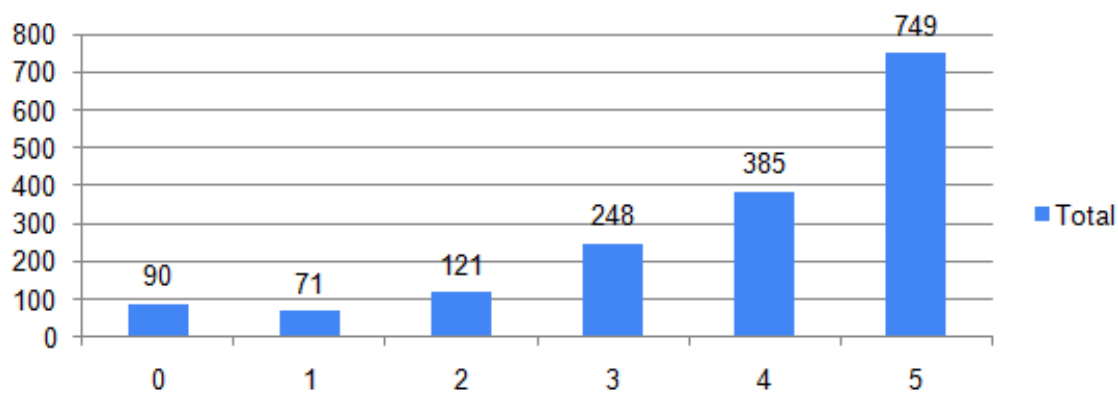

7. Visual Materials (Online content, slides or handouts were clear and legible; useful to understand content)

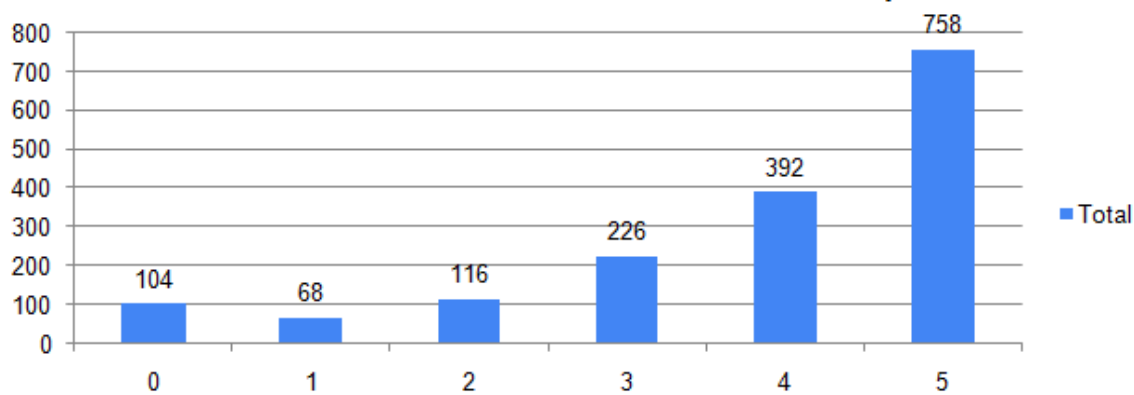

8. Voice and speech (Words and phrases easily understood; clearly heard in the classroom/Laboratory)

9. Reference or supporting materials (Easy access to the required materials; Materials provided assisted learning or completing activities)

10. Laboratory/Practical's (All Experiments Conducted? Permitted to use all Equipment's, Availability of Teacher for whole Duration, Regular Checking of Journals & Evaluation Format.)

11. Industrial Visit/Industrial Tour. (Whether faculty has Organized Visit? Was I.V Relevant to Course Content, tried to relate Theory Concept with Industry Practices?)

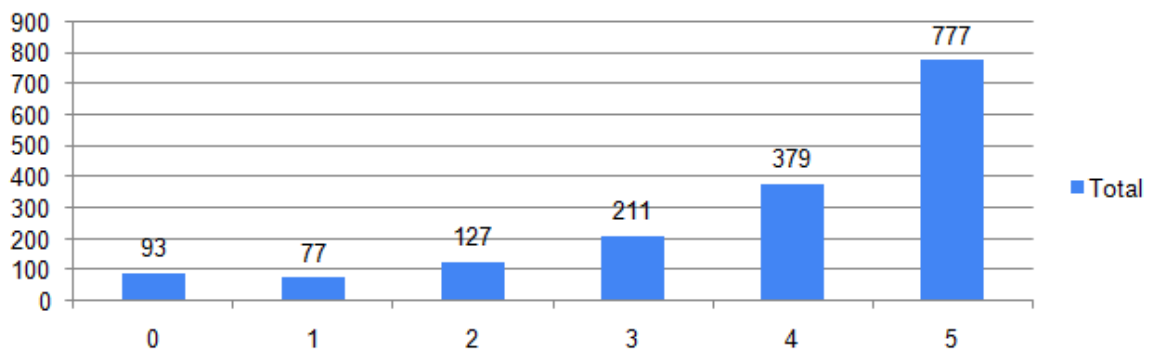

12. Expert Talk/Guest Lecture. (Whether Industry Expert/Academician Invited to Explore Course Content, was it well planned, Does Expert address the course Contents?)

13. Professional Skills (Assists for Developing Professional Skills? Helps students in realizing Carrier Goal, helps students in realizing their Strengths)

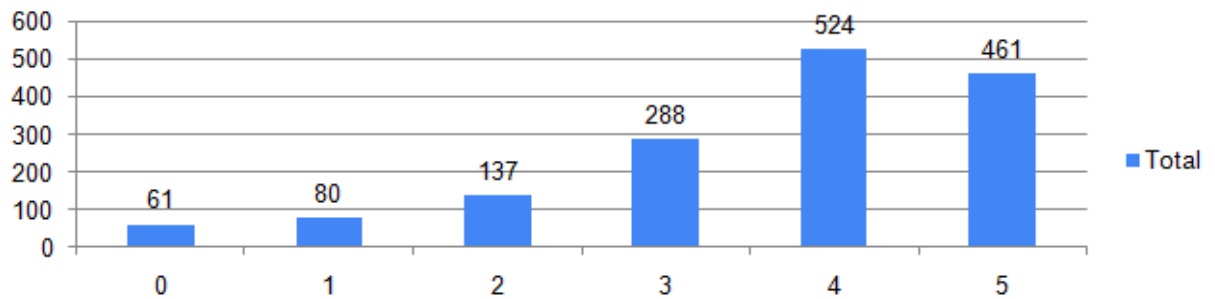

14. Ethical Conducts (Inspires Students for Ethical Conduct? Enhances Learning by Judicious reinforcement, Helps Student Irrespective of Gender/Culture/Background.)

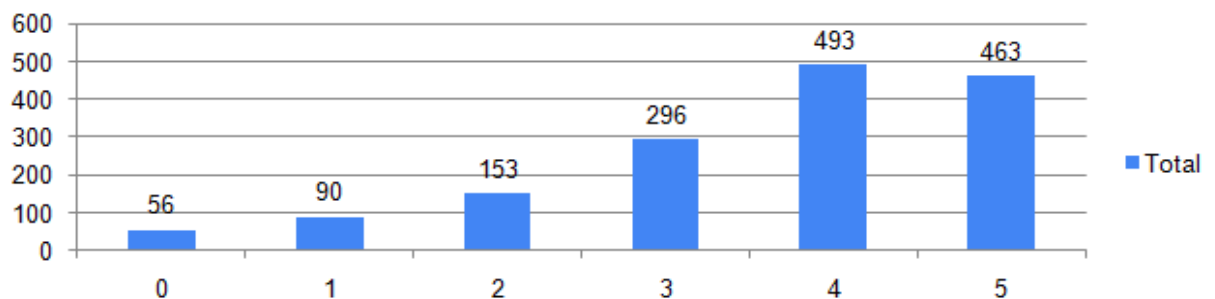

Third Year CSE Faculty Feedback Analysis

1. Classroom and Practical organization
(Aims of the class/practical clearly specified; any preparation that was needed of students was detailed; class/practical time was effectively used; well-structured class/practical conduction)

2. Explanation or discussion (Important points were reinforced; use of example, analogies or illustrations; used terms familiar to students; indicated links to other parts of the subject; point or issues clearly explained)

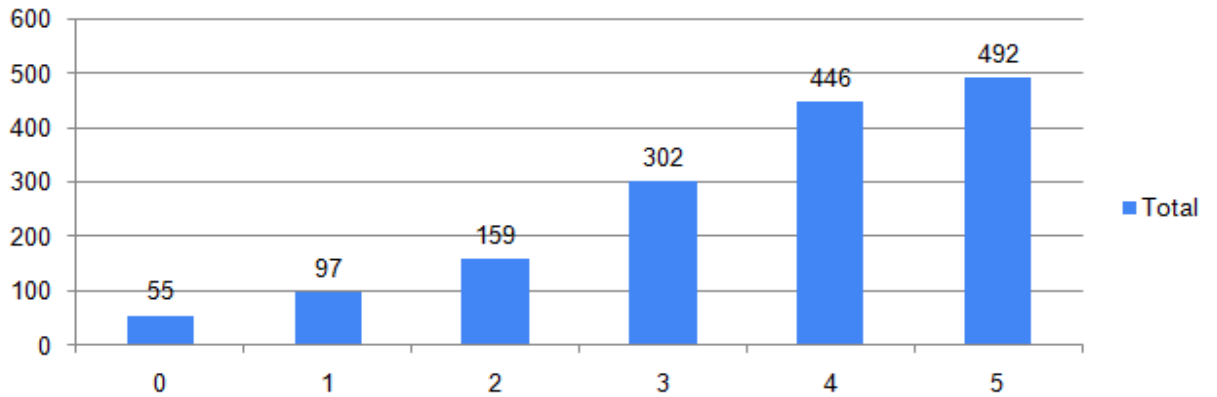

3. Interest and enthusiasm (Class/Practical presented in an interesting way; teaching was lively or energetic; students' further interest was stimulated)

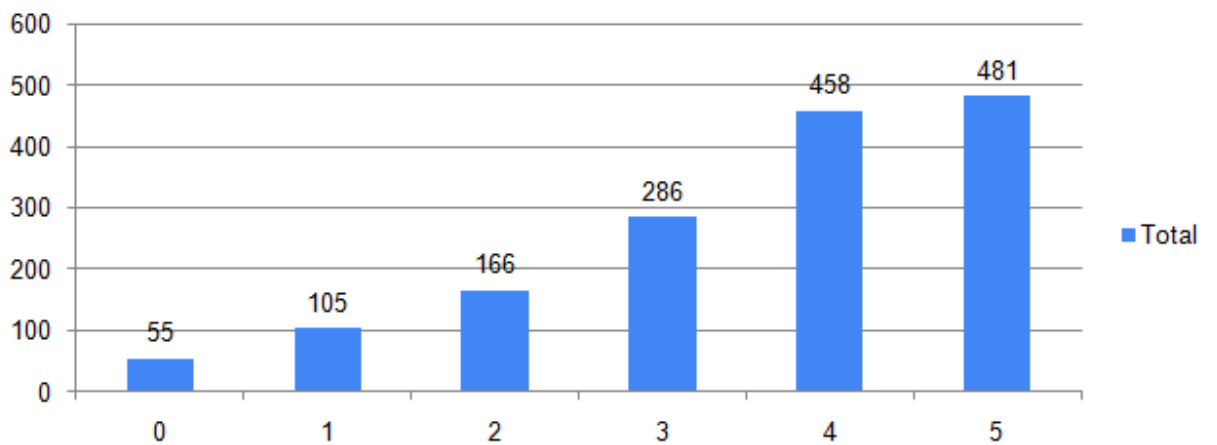

4. Interaction with students (Reacted positively to student comments or questions or in discussions; willing to assist student when they had difficulty; opportunities for input in the class/practical)

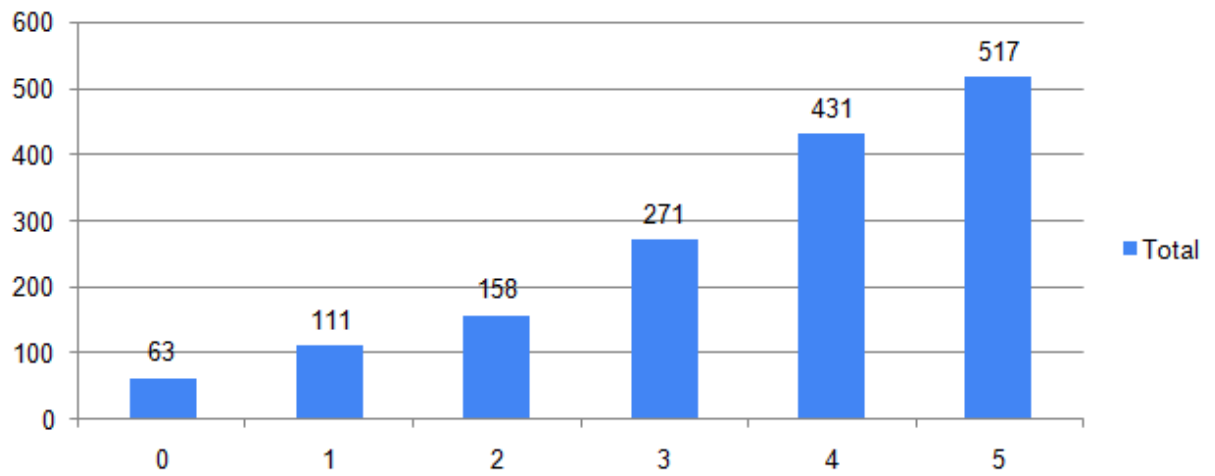

5. Feedback to students (Provide constructive input on student work; ways to improve was provided; input received in time to be useful)

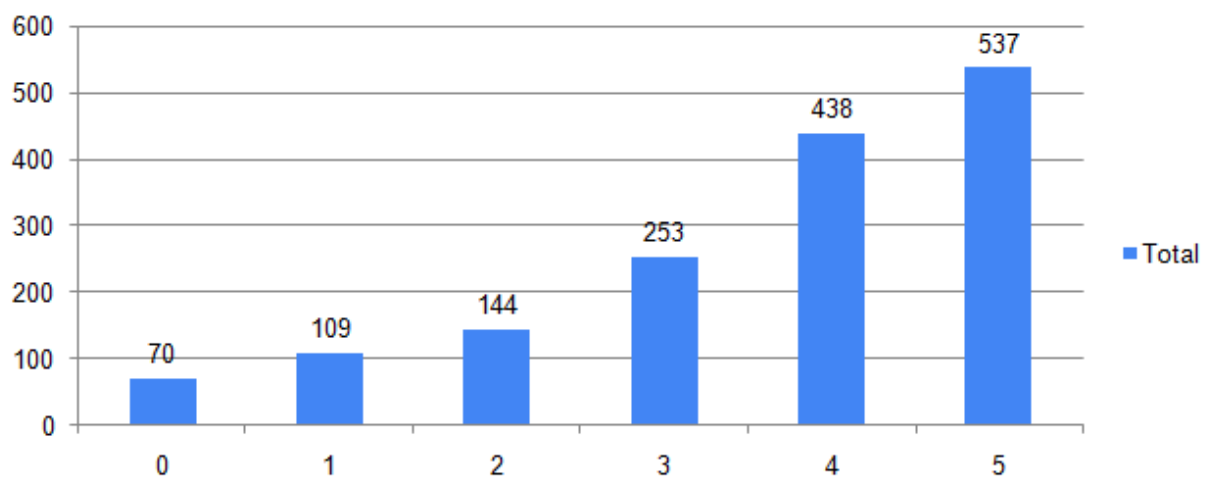

6. Availability for consultation (Office hours posted; times suitable to students; other forms of consultation available (i.e. email, phone))

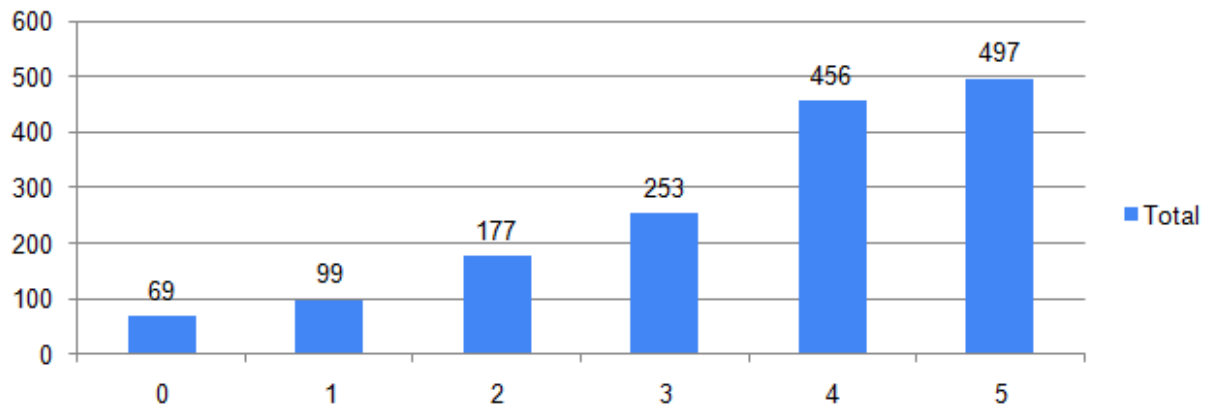

7. Visual Materials (Online content, slides or handouts were clear and legible; useful to understand content)

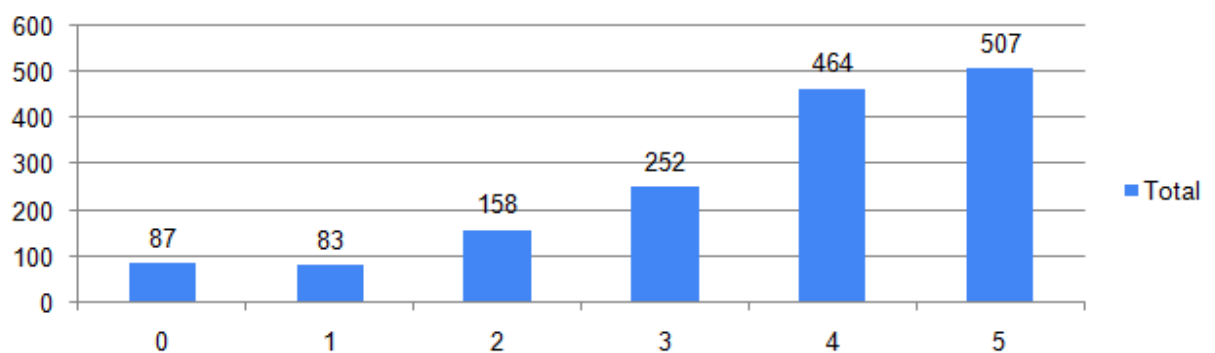

8. Voice and speech (Words and phrases easily understood; clearly heard in the classroom/Laboratory)

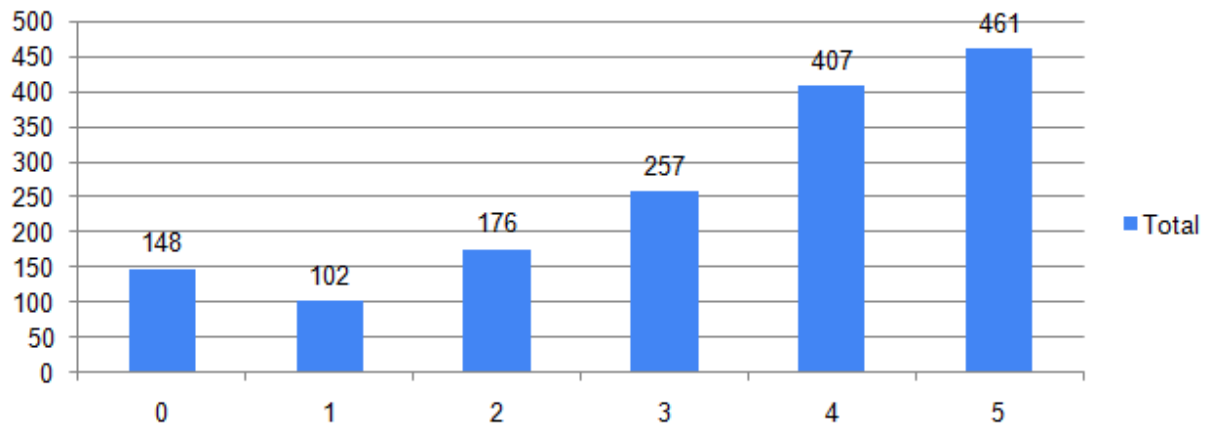

9. Reference or supporting materials (Easy access to the required materials; Materials provided assisted learning or completing activities)

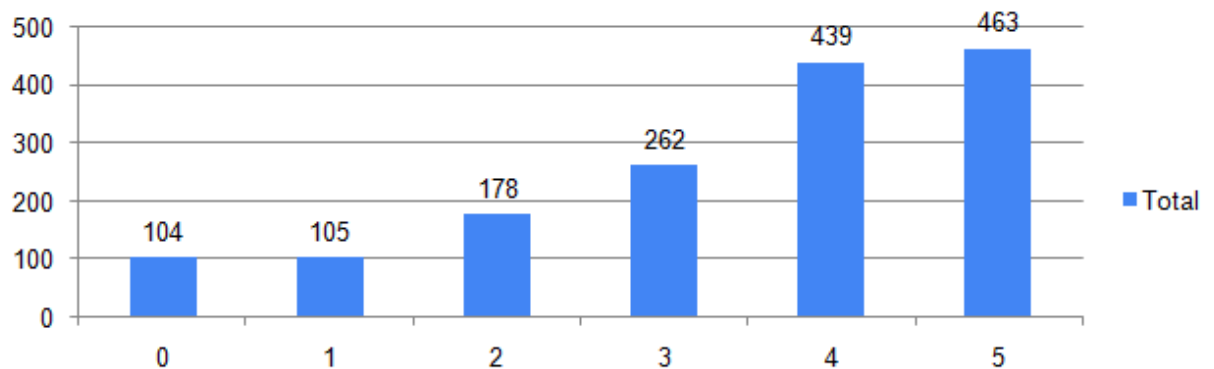

10. Laboratory/Practical's (All Experiments Conducted? Permitted to use all Equipment's, Availability of Teacher for whole Duration, Regular Checking of Journals & Evaluation Format.)

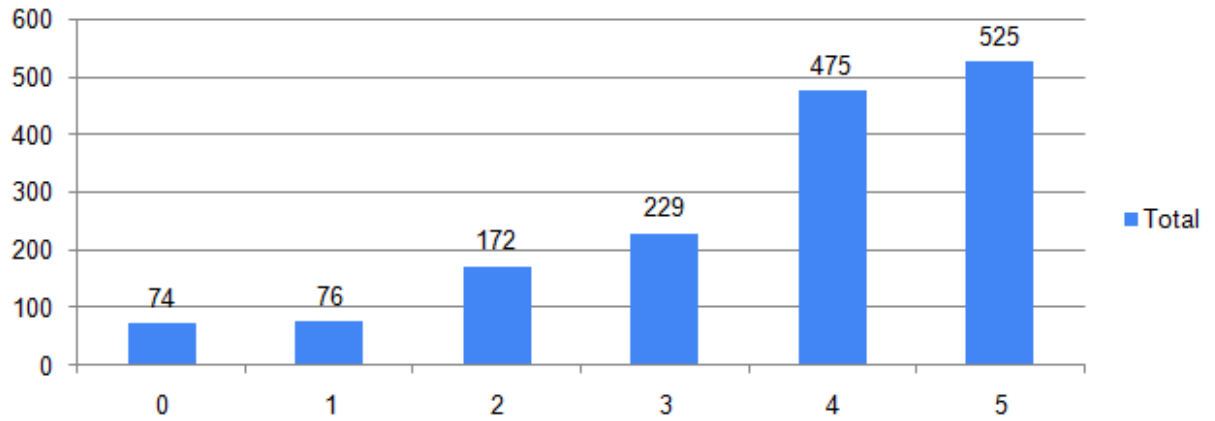

11. Industrial Visit/Industrial Tour. (Whether faculty has Organized Visit? Was I.V Relevant to Course Content, tried to relate Theory Concept with Industry Practices?)

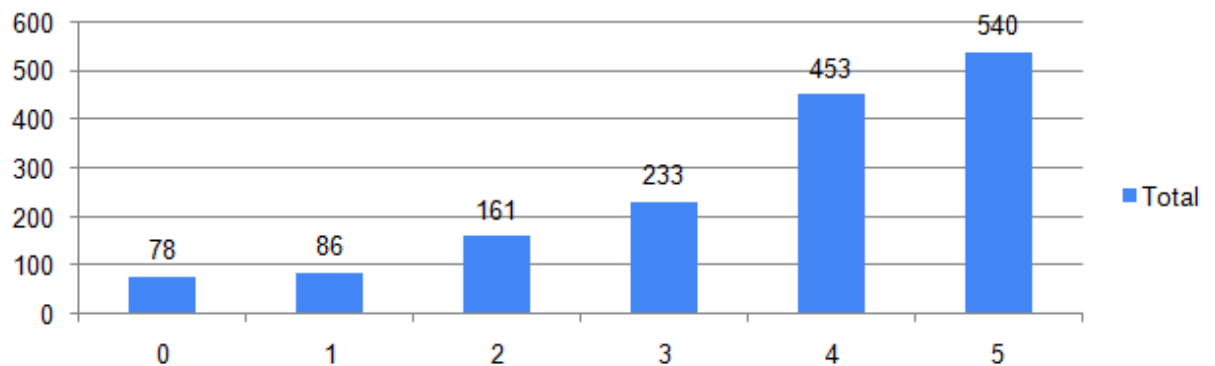

12. Expert Talk/Guest Lecture. (Whether Industry Expert/Academician Invited to Explore Course Content, was it well planned, Does Expert address the course Contents?)

13. Professional Skills (Assists for Developing Professional Skills? Helps students in realizing Carrier Goal, helps students in realizing their Strengths)

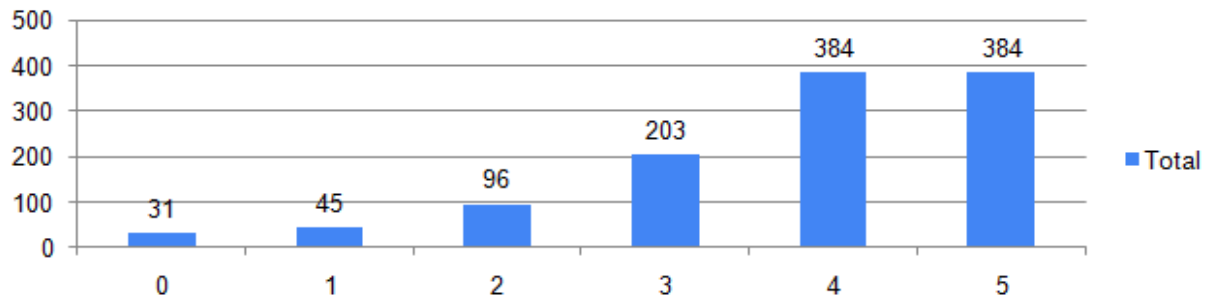

14. Ethical Conducts (Inspires Students for Ethical Conduct? Enhances Learning by Judicious reinforcement, Helps Student Irrespective of Gender/Culture/Background.)

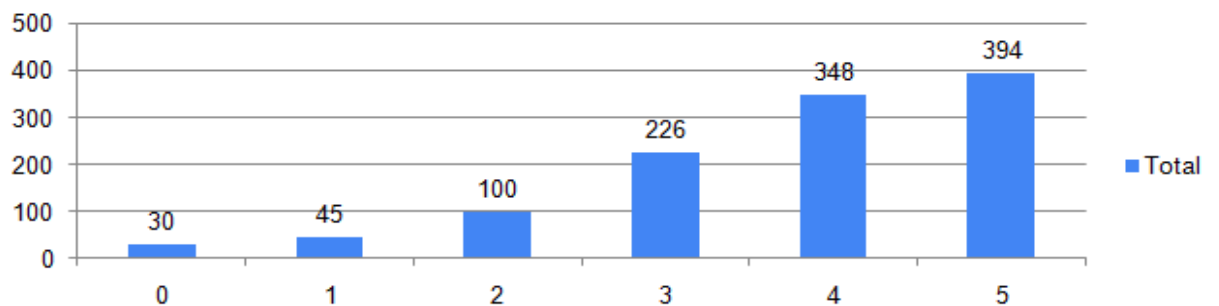

Final Year CSE Faculty Feedback Analysis

1. Classroom and Practical organization
(Aims of the class/practical clearly specified; any preparation that was needed of students was detailed; class/practical time was effectively used; well-structured class/practical conduction)

2. Explanation or discussion (Important points were reinforced; use of example, analogies or illustrations; used terms familiar to students; indicated links to other parts of the subject; point or issues clearly explained)

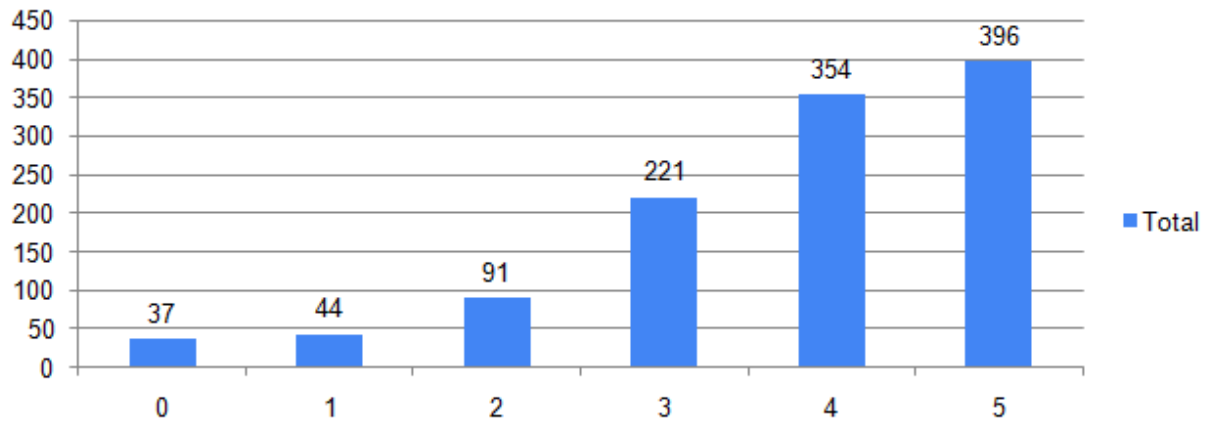

3. Interest and enthusiasm (Class/Practical presented in an interesting way; teaching was lively or energetic; students' further interest was stimulated)

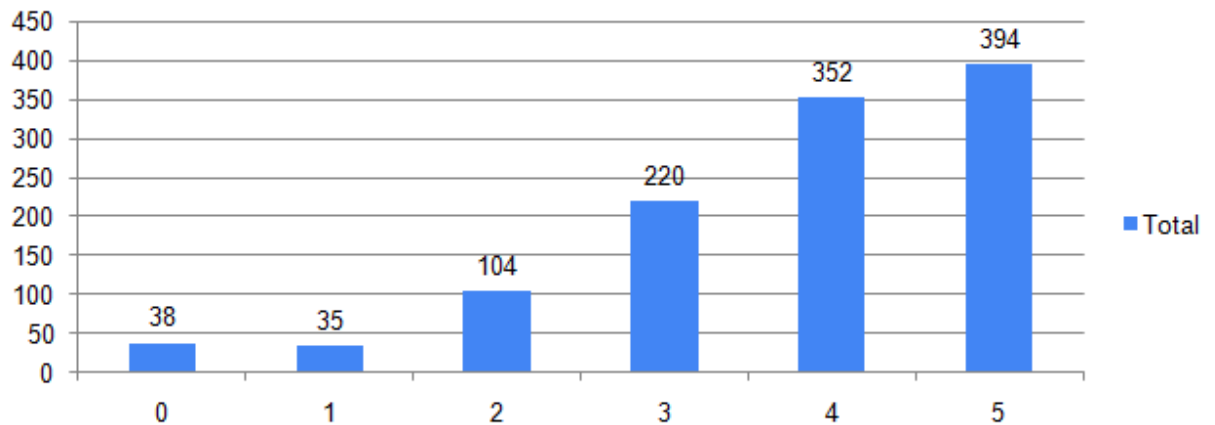

4. Interaction with students (Reacted positively to student comments or questions or in discussions; willing to assist student when they had difficulty; opportunities for input in the class/practical)

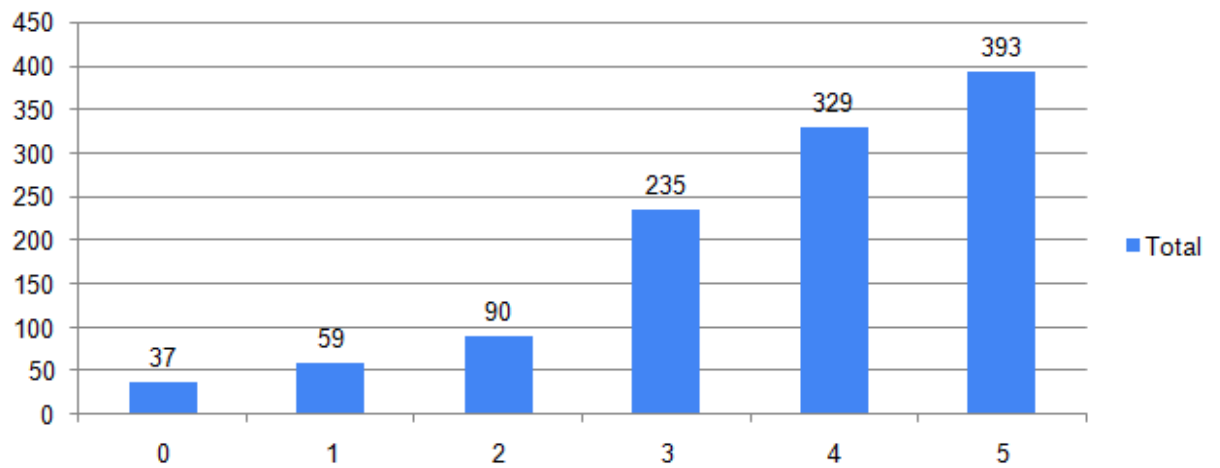

5. Feedback to students (Provide constructive input on student work; ways to improve was provided; input received in time to be useful)

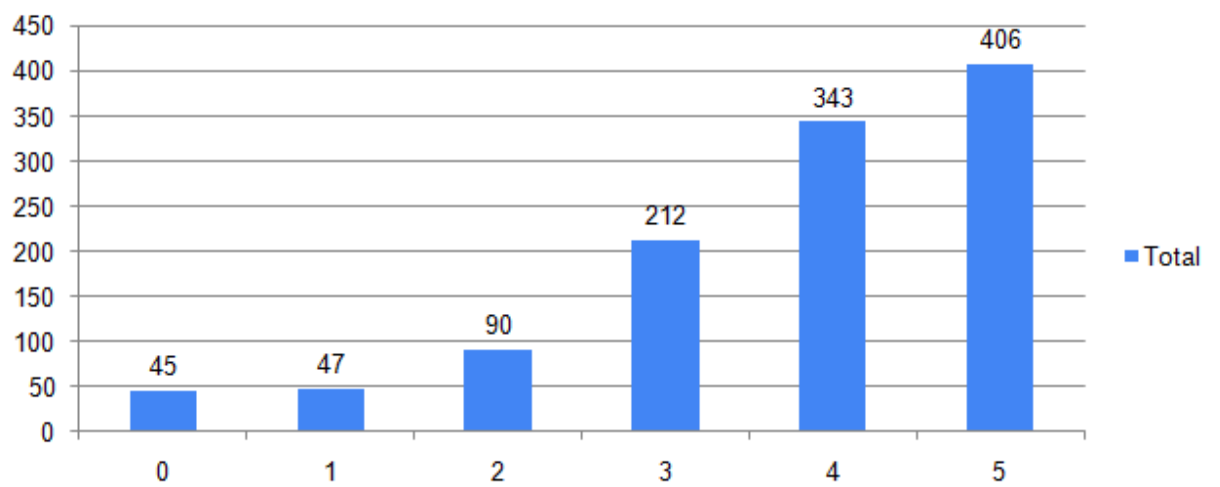

6. Availability for consultation (Office hours posted; times suitable to students; other forms of consultation available (i.e. email, phone))

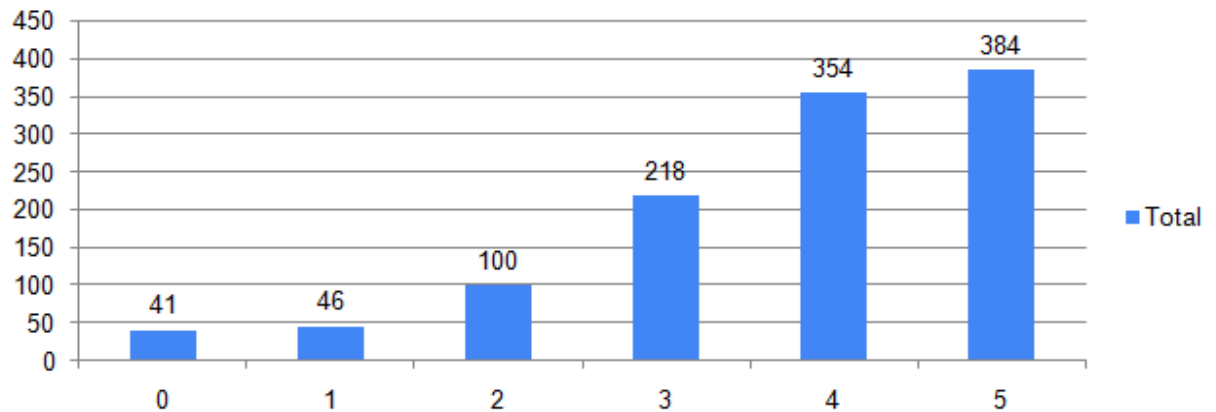

7. Visual Materials (Online content, slides or handouts were clear and legible; useful to understand content)

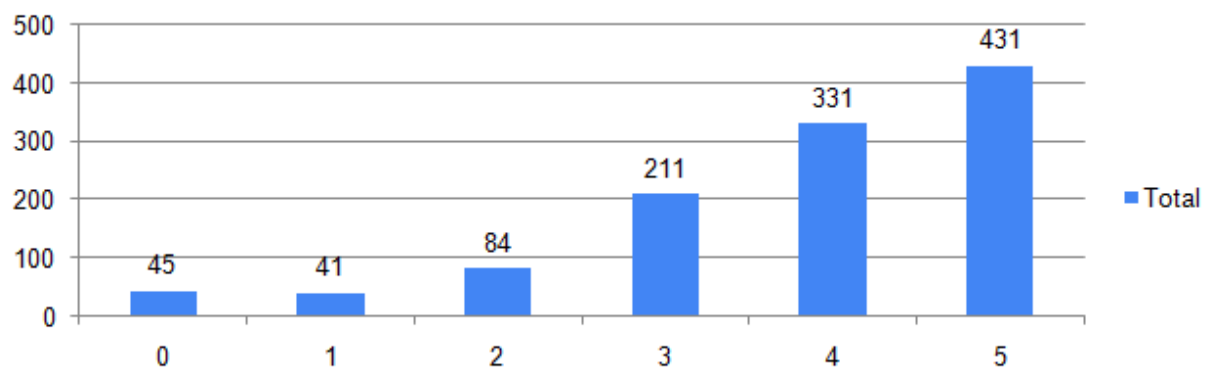

8. Voice and speech (Words and phrases easily understood; clearly heard in the classroom/Laboratory)

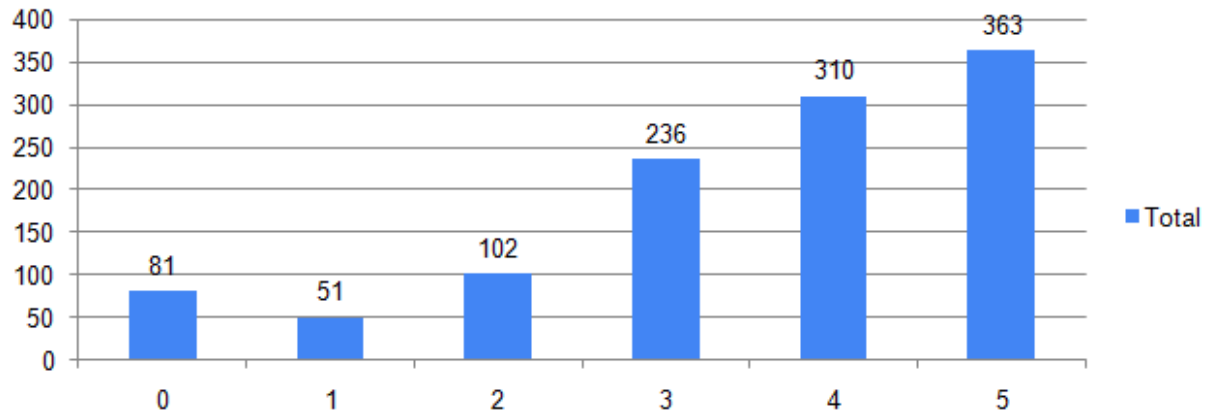

9. Reference or supporting materials (Easy access to the required materials; Materials provided assisted learning or completing activities)

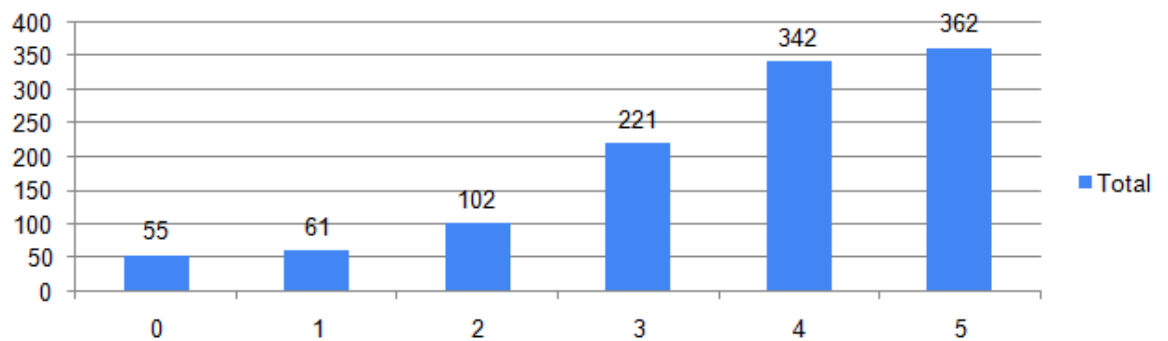

10. Laboratory/Practical's (All Experiments Conducted? Permitted to use all Equipment's, Availability of Teacher for whole Duration, Regular Checking of Journals & Evaluation Format.)

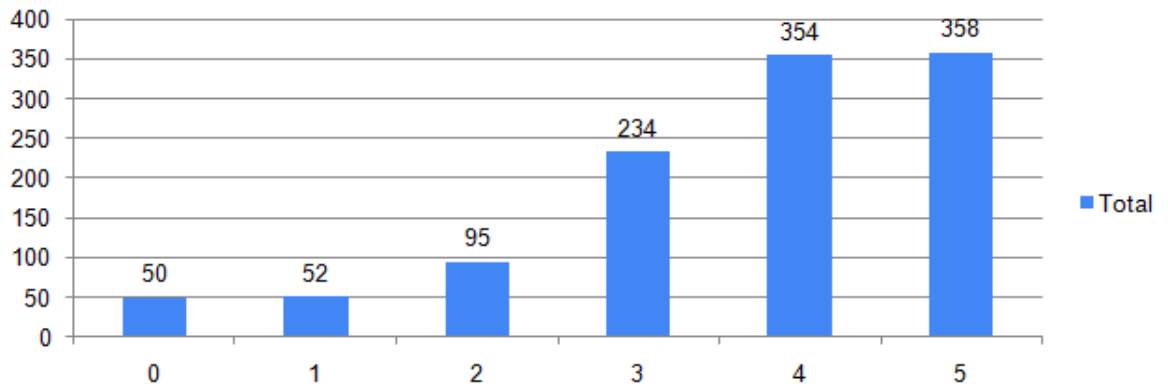

11. Industrial Visit/Industrial Tour. (Whether faculty has Organized Visit? Was I.V Relevant to Course Content, tried to relate Theory Concept with Industry Practices?)

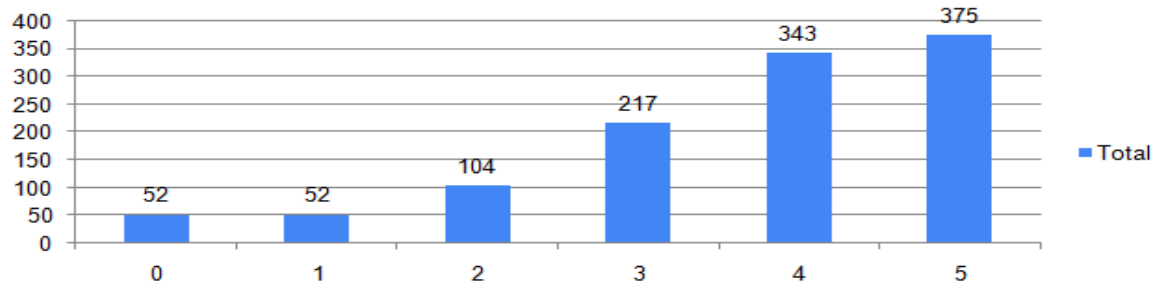

12. Expert Talk/Guest Lecture. (Whether Industry Expert/Academician Invited to Explore Course Content, was it well planned, Does Expert address the course Contents?)

13. Professional Skills (Assists for Developing Professional Skills? Helps students in realizing Carrier Goal, helps students in realizing their Strengths)

14. Ethical Conducts (Inspires Students for Ethical Conduct? Enhances Learning by Judicious reinforcement, Helps Student Irrespective of Gender/Culture/Background.)

[Signature]
Director
Deogiri Institute of Engineering
And Management Studies
Aurangabad.

