A1: Introduction of New Programs (AY 2026–27) - Discussion was carried out on the introduction of new academic programs such as Electrical Engineering and Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning (AIML) with specialization in Data Science. The need for these programs was considered in view of current industry demand and future career opportunities for students.

Resolution: It was decided to conduct detailed feasibility studies considering industry demand, availability of infrastructure, and qualified faculty before introducing the new programs. Necessary approval from statutory bodies will be obtained, and proper planning will be done to ensure successful implementation of the programs.

Proposer: Dr. R. V. Pakhale

Seconder: Mr. D. R. Pawar

A2: Review of Autonomy Syllabus (SY) - Discussion was carried out on the review of the autonomy syllabus for Second Year, focusing on its relevance, structure, and alignment with industry requirements. Feedback from students, faculty, alumni, and industry experts was also considered during the discussion.

Resolution: It was decided to incorporate necessary improvements in the syllabus based on stakeholder feedback to enhance curriculum effectiveness and student learning outcomes. Emphasis will be given to inclusion of emerging technologies, skill-based components, and industry-oriented topics to ensure better employability of students.

Proposer: Dr. G. R. Gandhe

Seconder: Dr. A. S. Pathan

A3: Academic Monitoring Committee Review - Discussion was carried out on the functioning of the Academic Monitoring Committee and its role in ensuring effective implementation of the teaching-learning process. The need for regular monitoring of syllabus coverage, attendance, and academic activities was emphasized.

Resolution: It was decided to strengthen the monitoring mechanisms by conducting regular reviews of academic progress, adherence to the timetable, and syllabus completion. The Academic Monitoring

Committee will ensure effective implementation of teaching-learning processes and timely corrective actions wherever required.
